
Points are jittered to show overlapping observations; lines and 95% confidence bands are unadjusted.